THEY ARE AFTER MR. BRIAN

Interstate Democratic Association Formulating Charges.

IS RESIGNATION RUMORED

ullman Denounced and His Cars Boycotted After a Eitter Contest-Col. Clayton Resigns from Committees-Reply to Ex-Union Soldiers-Arranging for Voters.

If the charges now being formulated against apt. H. T. Brian, of the Government Print-Office, are well founded, and the assern made by the special committee of investigation that has had its official eye upon the words and upon his movements is true, Capt. Brian is not only in danger of decapitaon, but is even now contemplating the severarise of his relations with the office.

The Interstate Democratic Association has Cart. Brian in hand, and at a largely atled meeting held last night at its rooms at No. 631 Louisiana avenue northwest, the special committee, appointed at a special meeting to make an investigation of his record, made a partial report of what had been done. The committee, as originally ap-pointed, consisted of Col. C. H. Mansur, Col. B. F. Chyton, and H. Wandell.

Col. Clayton, as spokesman for the others, col, Caryton, as spokeman for the country, in making the report said the committee had found so much evidence for examination that more time would be necessary than was at first supposed would be required in which to perfect she charges, but he was ready to say that Capt. Brise had been shown to be guilty of malfeasance in office, of having conthat Capt, Brian expected to resign, and that, with a little assistance from the association; hethrought he might do so within a week. If he voluntarily resized the speaker presumed the members would not be disposed to kick him alterwards.

Mr. Wandell, of the committee, supplemented his colleague's remarks by the statement that whereas a river was once required to clear out the Ausean staties, he thought it would need an ocean to wash out the corruption that that here found to exist at the Government Printing Office. The committee had gone back to the "star route" matter in tracing Capt. Briat is career, and found be had been a partner of Briady and Torsey in that inlamous scheme.

H. F. Hendricks, of Indiana, said be was in favor of kinking the offending official so long as he was in a position to be kicked. Brian and always kicked Democrats when he and, and no Democrat under him could ever expect a favor, while a Republican was cer-iain of getting what he asked for.

The Brian incident them gave place to another that was quite as productive of dismassion.

Judge Hardwick, of Virginia, got the floor, and in a brief way suggested that Democratic voters who go home to vote should steer clear of the Fullman cars. He said there was a labor organization in this country whose inter organization in this country whose members were valuable side to Democracy, and he shought the association should ride in a lost car in preference to a Pullman.

After some discussion Mr. Hardwick made a motion requesting all members of the association to retrain from patronizing Pullman mars, and this was vigorously objected to. Mr.

Cayton said if the gentleman who col. Clayton said if the gentleman who made the motion was really in earnest, then the the considerable hould include a prolithinian of surar and whicky and certain wearing appared. He moved to amend by requesting members to use no sugar while at home attending the election, "for I know of no granter trust," said be, "than the sugar trust that's the real trust of this country, and the one that huris us most," he added." point not well taken, and Judge Hardwick's

It was argued by Mr. McDonald that to pass the resolution would make Democratic votes in Dilinnia, especially in Chicago, "For that matter," said he, r'it will help Democracy all over the West." ingly defeated.

Those opposed to the motion characterized the action of the mesociation as "nere rot," as "rank folly," as a "beycott," as a "burt" and not a "help" to the cause, and Col. Clayton was brought to his feet by a motion to make the rote unanimous for the resolution, with the remark that if he were the only one to oppose it be would still be groud of his position, and that before the expiration of a west the association would be corry for the author taken.

A brief speech from Walter W. Warwick, of Ohlo, was attentively listened to and vigorously applauded.

After the meeting adjourned Col. Clayton walked up to the president's desk and very complatically tendered his resignation from every committee to which he had been assigned, saying he would have no more to do with it. The adoption of the Pullman resolution, he said, was absolute nonsense, and not Democratic. He did not propose to be a party to any such proceeding.

At the Bureau of Printing and Engraving the engraver has been for nearly a year at work on the plate for the diplomas which are to awrompany each medal. This work could not be hurried, so work on the medals has only been forwarded to keep pace with it.

HE SHOT DOWN THE SHAFT

Albert Deal Lives After Palling Eleven Stories in the Cairo Flats.

The Distance Was 120 Feet-The Elevator Was Out of Order and the Man Tried to Find the Defect-Carelessness of the Engineer Is Said to Have Caused the Mishap.

Falling down an elevator shaft from the deventh story of a building is not an everyday event. Ordinarily, when it happens to a man, the subsequent proceedings interest him

Albert Deal, however, enjoys the distinction of being an exception to the rule; that is, if there can be anything enjoyable about the affair beyond the fact that he lives to tell the tale. He was precipitated from the top to the bottom, 120 feet, of the elventor shaft at the Cniro Fints, on Q street, between Sixteenth and Seventeenth, yesterday afternoon, and by nothing short of a miracle escaped with apparently no worse injuries than a badlyaprained back and several slight braises.

There has been trouble with the elevator ever since it was put in place. The workmen about the flats have been always doubtful of its stability. Yesterday morning it was noticed to run badly and only the safety notices presented it from failing. Twice been have to displace to the flat out to the first and the safety notices.

ment she might reform him."
They were married here on March 10, 1889, by the Rev. W. C. H. Luebkert, of Trinity Lutheran Church, Fourth and E streets northwest. He was a riding-master here at the ime, handsome, quite popular with the coung indies in his classes, but not considered a desirable match by their parents. Shortly after the marriage he began to treat her cruelly and so continued till on February 8, 1892, she was obliged to seek safety with her parents. Instances of his mistreatment are given. On May 10, two months after their marriage, he ordered her to get money from her parents for him to go to California, and when she could not get it he struck her with his list, causing hurts that remained many days.

In July following he told her he could not support her and told her to go home. When she refused he attempted to take her life by beating, bruising, and finally strangling her. In June, 1890, he set upon her and beat her so eruelly as to arouse the whole household where they were living and so continued till the landlady was obliged to interfere to buy a horse for him.
